

Appearance Standards

The Appearance Standards at Camp David Kansas are for consistency, or modesty, or safety. Please pack for camp with these standards in mind.

Appearance Standard at Camp David:

- Modesty: Our goal is to be modest at all times in our clothing choices and conduct.
- Everyone is expected to stay clean- shower often and brush their teeth.
- No underwear showing, no sagging pants, no leggings, holey t-shirts, words on backsides or rolling over waistbands.
- Sneakers are needed for most Camp David activities. Flip-flops may only be worn to the showers or pool for safety reasons.

Girl's Standards

- Modest Swimsuits are required: swimsuits must cover the stomach, with no cleavage showing. No high cut legs, no cut-outs or mesh swimsuits. Girls must wear a T-shirt over their swimsuit when walking to the pool and back.
- No short shorts- shorts must easily come to fingertips when your arms are at your sides.
- No bras showing- no straps at shoulders or bras showing under the arms.
- No spaghetti strap tops, no cleavage, and no midriffs showing (even when arms are raised).

Note: If your daughter only has a 2 piece swimsuit, she can just wear a t-shirt over it!

Guy's Standards

- NO "Speedo" swimsuits allowed. Swimsuit shorts should fit snugly at waist so they stay up in the pool!
- Guys should keep their shirts on unless swimming or playing field games.
- No short shorts.
